17. SUPPLIER'S RIGHT TO HOLD AND SELL ITEMS

- 17.1 The Supplier has the right to withhold or ultimately dispose of some or all of the items until the Customer has paid all of the Supplier's charges and other payments due in terms of this Agreement, including (but not limited to) any charges paid by the Supplier on behalf of the Customer.
- 17.2 The Customer shall be liable for the Storage charges and other costs incurred by the withholding of items by the Supplier.
- 17.3 The Supplier is entitled, by giving 28 days' notice, to require the Customer to remove any items from the former's possession and to pay any outstanding or additional charges in respect of the Services rendered.
- 17.4 If the Customer fails to pay the outstanding or additional charges to the Supplier, the Supplier is entitled to sell or dispose of the items without further notice. The costs associated with the sale or disposal will be for the Customer's account and the net proceeds will be credited to the Customer's account.

18. THE SUPPLIER'S RIGHTS TO SUB-CONTRACT THE WORK

- 18.1 The Supplier has the right to sub-contract some or all of the Services to any other organisation of its choice.
- 18.2 If the Supplier sub-contracts some or all of the Services, this Agreement remains in force between the parties.
- 18.3 The Customer hereby agrees to the terms set forth in the Bills of Lading, Consignment Notes issued by other carriers or organisations involved in the removal and provides the Supplier with the power of attorney to accept such conditions as the Customer's agent.

19. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 19.1 The Customer may not defer payment to the Supplier or set off any amount due to the Supplier in the event of a claim or dispute.
- 19.2 The Parties agree that if a dispute arises they will firstly use reasonable endeavours to resolve, through mutual consultation, without involving any third parties, any dispute which may arise under, out of, or in connection with this Agreement and the Services rendered.
- 19.3 If the dispute remains unresolved, the parties agree that only the laws of South Africa will apply and that only South African Courts have jurisdiction to preside over the said dispute.

20. FORWARDING ADDRESS

If the Customer provides the Supplier with items to be stored the Customer is obliged to provide a forwarding address and notify the Supplier in writing if it changes. Where possible an email address is required.

21. LIST OF GOODS OR RECEIPT (INVENTORY)

If a list of items or receipt for them is given, it will be final unless the Customer notifies the Supplier in writing within seven days of collection specifying any items that are missing from the list or receipt.

22. STORAGE CHARGES

- 22.1 All charges including removal charges must be paid before the items may be taken out of Storage. All Storage charges must be paid in advance by the Customer monthly or quarterly depending on the agreement reached between the parties by debit order.
- 22.2 The Supplier has the right to review the Storage charges periodically. The Customer will be given 28 days notice of any increases in the Storage charges.

23. TERMINATION

- 23.1 Either party shall have the right to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other party if:
- 23.1.1 the other party commits a breach of any of the terms of the Agreement;
- 23.1.2 the other party commits an act of insolvency and/or is provisionally or finally liquidated or sequestered.
- 23.2 If the Customer intends to end the Storage of the items by the Supplier, the Customer must give the Supplier 14 days' notice of this intention. The Customer agrees that the Storage charges would be charged up to the date the Items are taken out of Storage and that the charges must be paid in full before the Items can be released.
- 23.3 If the Customer arranges for the collection of the Items independently from the Supplier, the Customer agrees that he/she/it is liable for the charges of taking the Items out of Storage.
- 23.4 The Supplier has the right to end the Storage of the Items at any time by providing the Customer with 3 months' notice.

24. SOLE CONTRACT AND VARIATION

- 24.1 This Agreement constitutes the sole record of the Agreement concluded between the Parties hereto and no representations, warranties or statements attributable to the Parties or anyone purporting to act on behalf of the Parties will have a bearing or effect on the terms.
- 24.2 No addition to, variation or consensual cancellation of this Agreement shall be of any force and effect unless reduced in writing and signed by or on behalf of both Parties.
- 24.3 No indulgence, leniency, or extension of time which either of the Parties may grant or show to the other shall, in any way, prejudice such party or preclude such party from exercising any rights in the future.

25. SAFEGUARDING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 25.1 The Supplier acknowledges the Customer's trust and is committed to protecting the information the Customer provides. To prevent unauthorized access, the Supplier has implemented technology and policies with the objective of safeguarding and securing the information the Supplier collects. Access to the Customer's "personal information" is only permitted among the Supplier's employees, subcontractors and agents in order to process the Customer's request and fulfill the Supplier's contractual agreement. The retention of documentation and information is done in accordance with the Companies Act 71 of 2008. For any queries, data breach or access to the Customer's information, the Customer can contact the Supplier on privacy@stuttfordvanlines.com.

26. COMMITMENT TO QUALITY MANAGEMENT

- 26.1 The Supplier requires its partners to acknowledge and commit to the Supplier's quality standard through Service Level Agreements. Partners are evaluated before concluding a Service Level Agreement by completing the Supplier's Quality Management, Data Privacy Protection, Anti-Trust, Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption survey.

27. ANTI-TRUST, ANTI-BRIBERY AND ANTI-CORRUPTION MANAGEMENT

- 27.1 FAIM accredited branches have signed Anti-Trust, Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption charters with FIDI and confirm that the Supplier has taken all the necessary steps to mitigate risk in its supply chain. These charters have been communicated on the Supplier's company website and to all internal personnel.
